

Haunted House

Everyday my friends Tony, Fred, Johnny, and Mickey and I talk about going to the scariest haunted house ever. I personally don't like haunted houses but, I don't want to tell my friends that because they would make fun of me. So after 7th period I told them that we could go to the haunted house after school tomorrow and they said that would definitely work. So I went to the car line and was waiting for my mom to pick me up from school. When they called my name on the walkie talkie I got up and ran out the door. I jumped into the car and told my mom that I was going to the haunted house tomorrow and she said I thought you didn't like scary stuff and I told her that my friends have been talking about it and I didn't want to tell them I was scared so I just went along and said yes I will go.

Today is the day I go to the scariest haunted house ever. When my mom dropped me off at school my friends and I were playing around with each other and scaring each other. And after 7th period we all got in the car line waiting for my mom to pick us up and go to the haunted house. When they called my name my friends and I jumped up and sprinted out the doors to my moms car. Once we got in the car I blasted some music and we all got hyped for the haunted house. When we got there there was a big white house and there were corn fields on both sides of the house. There was a big line so we had to wait. While we were waiting there was a clown that popped out of the fields and scared all of us. And my friend Tony got so scared he went back to the car with my mom. On his way to the car there was this scare crow that came out of the fields and was following him all the way back to the car.

When we finally got into the haunted house there were a lot of stairs. And the lights were flickering on and off and they were red and white lights. We had to wait a little while for the people that were in front of us to finish. While we were waiting for them to finish there was this guy with a custom hanging from the ceiling staring at us. He got down from the ceiling and jumped down the stairs and came right to us and whispered in all of our ears "I will find you". We all were freaking out.

The family in front of us finally finished. It was finally our turn to go so we got up to the paying station to pay and I could hear the lady's walkie talkie and it said "we got one". And at that point I was shaking, I didn't know what was going on at the time. I was so scared I thought of trying to back out but there was a giant guy that opened a huge door and let us into a room. The room was pitch dark until the guy turned on a lamp. He was telling us a scary story about a girl named annabelle. After he told us a story he opened another door that led to a fogging room.

In the foggy room I couldn't see anything below my waist and when a radio came on and music started to play it said that you better find the exit. When I was walking around to find the exit this girl popped up and scared Johnny and I. And when I finally saw the exit the girl came around the podium and I saw her at the corner of my eye. But somehow she came behind me and grabbed my legs and I screamed. When I opened the door that said exit on it, it led me to another room.

In that room was a big library with a bunch of shelves full of books. The radio came on again and said try to make it out of the maze of books. When I was half way through the maze I heard footsteps behind me so I turn around and nothing was there so I kept walking like not even 5 seconds later i heard it again and turned around and saw a clown with a big horn and when I made I to eyes with him he honked his horn, and I took off sprinting and when lost him I came to this room with a bed in it I slowly walk to it and took the blankets off and it was a walkway down to another room in that room was another bed so i slowly walk to it and took the blanket off AHHHHH its a zombie I ran to the nearest door and opened it it was a ramp way down to a cage of zombies. When I got down the steep ramp this guy jumped down from the ceiling and ran away from us.

When I got to the cages of zombies it was all foggy and all I could see was a red light down the hallway. So I made my way to the light on my way there. I heard a girl say help so I followed the voice and found another room filled with customs and masks. She was a little girl about 7 years old. I asked her if she needed help she said yes please I picked her up and got out of the room and started to head to the red light again. I asked her what was wrong. She said that she lost her parents in the fog and couldn't find them so she hid in the room. So I told her to relax and take a breath. When I got closer to the red light it said exit. So I ran to it and opened it.

The haunted house was finally over with and I made it through and I took the little girl to her parents and now I was just waiting for my friends to finish so we could leave. When Johnny came out he was drenched in sweat and so was Mickey. We didn't know where Fred was. And a minute later he came out with an elephant ear. We asked him where he got it from and he said he never even went in the rooms he just stayed back and was eating. So we were all mad at him and we started heading to the car where mom and Tony were. When we got to the car this guy kept walking by the car and staring at us so we all got scared. And mom took off and headed home. We all were so happy we went. It was a blast we couldn't believe how fun and scary it was. I was so happy I went.
